

Submission for posters:

Deadline: Friday, May 31, 2019.

Abstract Guidelines:

1. The BaCI Committee expects posters to be at a level that will provide a positive viewing experience for the attendees. When submitting abstracts for the BaCI 2019, please consider whether multiple abstracts are truly necessary or if the data you are presenting could be communicated via submission of one abstract.

2. Send your abstract to the email baci2019@126.com as you would like it to appear on the BaCI 2019 program, schedule, and other publications. The only acceptable file format is PDF. Please refrain from using all caps, unless absolutely necessary (e.g., for acronyms such as MRI, PET, or PRESTO, etc.).

3. Abstracts should be formatted to include the following:

- Title – 100 characters. Please refrain from using all caps.
- Authors and Affiliations – maximum of 40
- Introduction, Methods, Results, Conclusions – 4000. Total Character Limit (includes spaces)
- Figures (optional / maximum 2) - See guidelines below
- References

4. A maximum of 10 references can be entered per abstract submission. The author-date format is preferred. An example of a correct citation can be found below:

Lieberman, A. M. & Mattingly, I. G. The motor theory of speech perception revised. Cognition 21, 1-36 (1985).

5. Please include sufficient detail in your methods and results sections to enable readers to have a clear understanding of what data have been collected and what results have been observed. For example, where appropriate please include information on data acquisition, data processing, number of subjects tested, quantitative results and statistics, etc.

6. Guidelines for including figures in your abstract:

- A maximum of 2 figures can be included.
- Figures should be implanted in the abstract.
- If you would like to include a brief caption for your figure, please include it with your uploaded figure embed it directly onto the figure.

7. You are not required to register for the BaCI 2019 prior to submitting an abstract, however, if your abstract is selected for poster presentation, the presenter of the abstract must register for the meeting. You will be notified by email when the registration opens.
